

Profile of
ATTY. ASIS GENEROSO PEREZ
Director
BUREAU OF FISHERIES AND AQUATIC RESOURCES
2011-present

Atty. Asis G. Perez was born on October 4, 1963 to parents Pedro Ticson Perez and Elena Laraya Generoso of Tiaong, Quezon. He finished his education in Veterinary Medicine at Francisco Balagtas College in 1987 and his Juris Doctor degree at the Ateneo De Manila University in 1991.

Between the years 1995 to 1998, he was a lecturer of Environmental Laws at the UP Law Center and served as Director of Alternative Environment Dispute Resolution Program of the DENR. He also became a Director of Law Enforcement at Tanggol Kalikasan, a non-governmental organization advocating environmental protection and conservation.

Because of his wide exposure in handling cases with relation to the environment and the actual implementation of environmental laws, he became a member of the Special Committee On The Rules Of Procedures For Environmental Cases of the Supreme Court from 2009 to 2010.

From time to time, Atty. Perez lectures on Environmental Law at the Philippine Judicial Academy.

An awardee of Quezon Medalya ng Karangalan in 2008, Atty. Perez is also a recipient of the First Gawad Sagip Dagat Award and the 2010 Clark R. Bavin Law Enforcement Award which was given during the 15th Conference of the Parties of CITES in Doha, Qatar.

Some of his published works are “Essentials of Protected Area Management in the Philippines (2000)”; “Improving the Governance of the Philippine Coastal and Marine Areas: A Guide For Local Government Units”; “A Study On Community-Based Law Enforcement in Tayabas Bay”; “Philippine Adaptation of the Code of Conduct for Responsible Fisheries”; and a primer on “Appropriate Dispute Resolution Processes.”
