

Profile of Arnold Kreilhuber

United Nations Environmental Programme (UNEP), legal officer

Dr. Arnold Kreilhuber, is an expert in international environmental law and international affairs. He has been intensively involved with the United Nations Environment Programme's (UNEP) work in environmental law since he joined the organization in 2005 and in particular as regards the implementation of, compliance with and enforcement of multilateral environmental agreements (MEAs).

Dr. Kreilhuber has actively contributed to the development of tools to enhance the effective and efficient implementation of international environmental law and facilitated workshops and designed capacity building programmes in environmental matters for customs officials and other enforcement personnel.

Previously, Dr. Kreilhuber has worked for Government institutions such as the Foreign Ministry of Austria and contributed to the development of policy and laws in his native Austria and the European Union as well as lent his expertise to Non-Governmental Organisations in environmental law and policy related matters.

Dr. Kreilhuber holds a Doctorate Degree in international law as well as a Masters Degree in International Relations.